

Georgia Pouliou is a psychiatrist and psychotherapist in Geneva, Switzerland. After graduating from the National Kapodistrian University of Athens in 2008, she specialized in psychiatry and psychotherapy in Geneva, and obtained a federal diploma in 2015. She also holds a certification in subspecialty of psychiatry and psychotherapy on addictions' field from the SSAM-SSPP. She formerly worked as a senior consultant for inpatient and outpatient settings in the addiction division at the University Hospitals of Geneva. She also holds a title on medical and therapeutic hypnosis SSMH shyps. She is conducting her medical thesis in sports' addiction at the Faculty of medicine of the University of Geneva. She has been strongly involved in students' training and clinical research for the CMU and HUG.