

GERASIMOS PAPANASTASATOS

---

Gerasimos Papanastasatos (PhD), with studies in social science and especially in criminology, is Head of KETHEA's Research Department. He is experienced in the field of addiction research and life-long training programmes. He is specialised in evaluating applied treatment and prevention programmes and life long learning training programmes for professionals. He has published several papers in Greek and International Journals in the field of assessment and evaluation of Addiction Treatment Programs. He participates in various technical committees and he is member of many scientific conference committees as well as editorial boards of scientific journals. Since 2008 he is visitor lecturer at Frederick University of Cyprus, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and the University of West Attica. Due to his expertise, since 2013 is Senior Advisor to National Drug Coordination Committee in Greece as well as official representative of Greece to International Bodies (UNODC/CND, EU/HDG, Pompidou Group/CoE, EMCDDA, COPOLAD II) in negotiating Global Drug Policy.

---